

	Boris Johnson (Conservative Party)	Ken Livingstone (Labour Party)	Brian Paddick (Liberal Democrats)	Jenny Jones (Green Party)
Implement penalties for bus companies which regularly fail to meet minimum standards in relation to access for wheelchairs; broken ramps; pulling into the kerb and giving passengers enough time to sit down	No	Yes	Yes	Yes
Ensure that at least a third of London's Tube stations are step-free by 2018, including from platform to train	No – but will make sure that 50% of London's rail network is stepfree by the end of the decade (from 47% of already committed stepfree station by 2015)	Yes –and a third of all Tube and rail stations by 2016	Yes	Yes
Restore all the staff axed from the Underground and ensure assistance is reliably available including on London Overground	No	Yes – “There will never be a Tube or train station under control of the Mayor that does not have staff on it every moment of the day that it is open.”	Yes	Yes – ‘Ensure all Tube and train stations have staff on hand to help older and disabled people, and parents and carers with children, and to provide reassurance for passengers late at night’
Lift the cap placed on TfL's contribution to the Taxicard service	No	Yes	Yes	Yes
Commit to a target of 100% of bus stops to be accessible by 2018	No – but will increase the number of accessible bus stops further from 58% to 70% by the end of the 2012/13	Yes	Yes	Yes – but two years early, by 2016

Any additional commitments?	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Extending the Freedom Pass to those 60 and over, lowering the age threshold from 61 • Lobby train operating companies to extend the Freedom Pass for use on suburban rail before 9.30am • Make free travel for under-16s conditional on giving up their seats for older, pregnant and disabled people 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ensure a representative of Inclusion London or Transport for All is on the board of Transport for London • Reversing shortenings of pedestrian crossing times • Cutting fares, saving councils which provide the Freedom Pass £22m • Allow Freedom Pass holders to use Cycle Hire bikes for free • Extending the Freedom Pass to those 60 and over, lowering the age threshold from 61 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Will put pressure on local authorities who are considering withdrawing discretionary freedom passes to some people with disabilities • Ensure Freedom Passes can be used on London's National Rail before 9.30am 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Will go on a trip with a disabled person • Will provide concessionary travel for carers • Allow Freedom Pass holders to use Cycle Hire bikes for free
---	---	--	---	---